

TWO KILLED IN EXPLOSION AT GROESBECK

Harlan Fiske Stone, New Attorney General

Important Convention Of Women In Session Here

Sessions Well Attended
Great Crowd Assembles
For President's Night

Crowding the auditorium, Sunday Hudson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, visitors and delegates from all parts of Northeast Texas and local citizens assembled Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and were thrilled by the splendid program on "President's Night" when the first formal program of the three days annual convention of Third District club women met in their Twenty-Third Annual session in this city.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. R. C. Kimball of Deport, Vice-President. She presided with the grace and ease of one accustomed to such duties, saying those things by way of introduction to each number which made it easier for the number to be presented and received.

The addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor E. Watson for the City of Mexia and by Mrs. W. M. White for the Women of Mexia.

The response to the addresses of welcome was by Mrs. Will C. Anderson, of Willsboro, who spoke very flatteringly of Mexia and with impressive beauty of the gratefulness in the hearts of those who are now guests in Mexia homes. She remarked on the privilege that was a city's that was honored by being selected as a convention city and stated that the women gathered in annual session in Mexia were trying to do their part in the world to develop ideals of citizenship and advance the interests of all the people. The public was invited to all sessions of the convention.

"Greetings" were extended by Mrs. Henry Redmond, President of Texas Federation of Women's clubs, of Corsicana. She was received with much pleasure by the large audience and her address followed closely, as she stressed the need of education for ourselves, the gospel of brotherhood and the beauty and service of a world view of citizenship, bringing Peace a little closer than it has ever been before.

The address of the evening was by Mrs. E. E. Maloney of Commerce, which thrilled her auditors and provoked prolonged applause at its conclusion. It is published in full in today's Mexia Daily News.

The church had been decorated for the occasion by a committee from Mexia's clubs and enhanced the brilliant scene, with the foliage of Springtime charmingly arranged around the altar and chairs occupied by those who participated in the program.

Mrs. Roy Akin presented an organ solo which was greatly appreciated by the gathering throng.

The invocation was by Rev. E. H.

Welcome Women!

Mrs. W. M. White's welcome to the clubs now in annual district convention here, Tuesday, was as follows:

Dear women of the Federated Clubs:

You have come up from your "queen's gardens" to enter our heart's sanctuary and there you may still hold royal court, while every woman is willing subject to the true power of purpose, attempt accomplishment. Every woman lifts her eyes from the sin and humiliation in Eden, pauses in her harvestfield gleaming, turns from the knight who wears her ribbons on his shield, to the gracious influence of your kingdom.

In peasant dress, in rustling skirts and silk panniers, in gypsy colors, in nurse linen, comes every woman in the gathered sisterhood of age, to honor your endeavor. We clasp her hand across the years and standing in the name of Mexia womanhood offer you glad welcome.

"Woman's New Outlook" Subject Of Address By Third District President

"A magnificent address" was the general verdict Tuesday night of the address by Mrs. E. E. Maloney, Commerce, President of Third District Texas Federation of Women's clubs. Her address was as follows:

Members of Third District and Friends:

As your president stands before you for the first time in her official duty, her most appealing thought is, Woman's New Outlook for Home, Church, School and Citizenship. She wishes she might go apply this thought as it impresses upon you as her message, the privileges and the opportunities which this outlook gives for developing the highest ideals in well rounded life. For, really, my friends, that is the epitome of all our effort, to lift human life to a higher plane. But, above all this, the Peace star shines. I wish your imagination were so strong that you could close your eyes and see the beautiful picture arranged by our American artist, Blashfield—you are all familiar with his beautiful group of angels chiming the blessed bells of "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Far back into the ages of myth, we find the story that a new city was built; the gods wanted to give it a name; they could not decide; at length it was agreed that, whoever, could present the most appropriate gift, might have the naming of the city. Minerva, by many called Athens, commanded the earth to bring forth the olive tree; Neptune or Poseidon, invoked the sea to produce the war-horse. Minerva won, so the new city was called "Athens." The olive branch of Peace became patrons of this city; thus war was vanquished and Peace was triumphant. Today, the new women are, like Minerva of old, consecrating their very lives to Peace propaganda. With the Blashfield angels they are singing in world wide chorus, "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Next year, women come from the Old World, each bearing her olive branch for the International Council of Women.

In the meantime our own Federation is unifying this Peace, Blessed Peace. Your president does not feel that she is assuming too much to pledge every single club woman of Third District to this world wide slogan—"No More War!" We were all jubilant when we heard of that tiny white pennant's going into the dining car of Generalissimo Foch. We then felt the dove of Peace hovering over us, but, now we tremble lest the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse frighten her away.

The fiery cross is going the rounds to tell us, "Buckle on your armor, and fight for World Peace."

We women of America have stood behind the firing lines in three generations. Our great, great grandmothers were the Molly Pitchers who loaded the cannon when the men were gone. They were the Betsy Rosses to unfurl Old Glory who has never yet gone down in defeat. Our grandmothers were the "Girls in the Home-Spun Dress" who shared the hardships of those who were the Gray. And we ourselves were a vital part of the work for our boys over there. We may not have shared physically the horrors of this war, but we kept the home fires burning, and we now realize the blessedness of temporary peace. So, this very moment, let us of the Third District dedicate our united effort towards bringing the olive branch as twentieth century Minervas to the world. And let us not relax until the Blashfield angels again sound their chiming of "Peace on earth, good will towards men."

And now, what may this reign of Peace mean to us as individual club women? In other words, amid all this readjustment, what is the outlook for women? Go with me through the departments of federated work. Eliminating those of a purely routine function, let us pause before the more vital sections. First of all, we have Americanization—what more powerful factor for peace than an immigrant harmonized with his privileges of living under the American flag and of realizing his ideals of personal liberty and the pursuit of happiness? But that is not all—have we Americanized ourselves as well? Born in American of American parents, many of us have never considered what that means. Many of foreign born, naturalized, is a better American than are we. Again, are we harmonizing ourselves to the benefits of association with the foreign born? Americanization is a reciprocal process. Allied with this work is our Training for Citizenship. Again, the lever turns both ways; not only are we training the foreign born, when naturalized, to appreciate his privilege, but we are training our own boys and girls, who attain majority, to appreciate what their new born privilege implies. We seek to make every American who attains the right to his vote, feel that he has been accorded a sacred trust. We are seeking to bring our Motion Pictures to that standard where American ideals are upheld. My friends, can you imagine any form of propaganda more conducive to Peace ideals than this promotion of Americanization in Citizenship fostered by the General Federation of Women's clubs? Remember this organization penetrates into the smallest hamlet of the remotest corner in our country? We never have a Texas Federation but what we meet delegates who drove as much as one hundred miles to take the train for the convention city.

Next—the Federation operates its departments of Public Welfare. Through this, Health, Child Welfare, Protection of Property from fire, and the crusade against the insidious narcotic, are promulgated. Add to Americanization a sound body, children safeguarded, menace to property relieved, then is not our newly acquired citizen nearer our ideal of peace and plenty abroad in the land?

Pardon a word concerning the new phase of our work, "The Syndicate of Sin" as it is called. This is specifically our District work because our own Mrs. Lindsay is state chairman of the Anti-Narcotic crusade. In proper time, Mrs. Lindsay will give you some facts which will convince you that America is confronted with a more deadly menace than she is by the "rum runners" along our coasts. Already this poison has been poured into the vitals of our school boys and girls.

Closely allied with our Public Welfare is our department of Home Economics. With this we group Thrift, Rural Life and Home Demonstration. By this means, the American home, even to the tiny cross road is placed upon a more thrifty, scientific plane. The marvelous work being done by our County Demonstrators is developing a happy, contented life on the farm. With their various clubs our boys and girls are learning to make rural life, not only brimful of interest, but remunerative. Practical homemaking as sponsored by the club women tends towards the very spirit of peace.

The Federation is also furnishing the Good Roads movement, also state, city and county parks, playgrounds, and tree planting. In this, the element of recreation supplements the forces at work in other directions. And here utility combines with relaxation. Not only does the good road take the man to his business and his child to his school, but it is time economy for marketing the farm products, and it enables the family to enjoy some of the recreation of the city. School, church, business and recreation are all stimulated. Community interest is promoted when a pretty park under plentiful shade gathers the rural citizens for discussions of the problems of the day. The love of home as well as of community pride tends towards the peaceful, contented life once more.

But, perhaps greater than all is Peace engendered through our department of Industrial and Social Relations. Through this our men, women and children whose lives are filled with the grime of smoke, whose life is music to the jazz from the wheel of industry, are our care. Or, perhaps it is life behind the prison wall where the unfortunate wards of citizenship are the problem. We are seeking to apply "justice to every living creature" in the hope that the criminal may soften under the human touch, and his outlook upon life tend towards a better citizenship. We are also giving attention to the racial problem of the negro and the Indian. Our chairman of the Indian life reports but one colony in Texas today. These are in Polk county, and are rapidly passing out of existence because of under nourishment and ignorance of how to combat the white plague.

With all these forces organized—and you know we have still more with the complex organization called the Texas Federation of Women's clubs—and in operating towards betterment of our citizenship, not alone in Texas, but in every state of our Union, are we not justified in feeling that, sooner or later, all the glory of a world wide Peace, is to be our reward?

In the meantime we are fostering education from Kindergarten to University by way of the public library. We are loaning our money to deserving boys and girls otherwise deprived of higher education. My friends, is it not all very worthwhile? What is this great Federation of ours? It is nothing more than the application to women of our motto, "United we stand, divided we fall." Would that every member of Third District might realize the power which lies in concentrated action.

Now, while we have joined as a world power working for World Peace, let us come back and stand upon the threshold of our individual opportunity as a world power. Ralph Waldo Emerson you know, said, "Hitch your wagon to a star, but do not forget to light the candles by the way." Living as we do in the age when woman's privileges are greatest, we have hitched our wagon to the star of Peace. Which are the candles we must light along the way? As the blessed single star guided the Shepherds to the Prince of Peace, so does our single star lead us onward to the Universal Brotherhood of Man.

For the points of our guiding star, let us name, the Home, the Church, the School, the Community and Citizenship, with Peace the crown of them all. Look beneath the surface, and there interpret. You will find, that no matter what our line of divergence, the fundamental is, the Home. For out of the Home come all the elements which mold the individual, and from the aggregate of standards from these individuals, comes the national mind and morals. In the very beginning of the woman's club, attention was centered upon the comfort, the beauty, the general welfare, of the individual member's own home. The desire was to place good books on the home library table; pictures were studied, that the best might be in the home. Soon, scientific food values were matters of interest. The children's school lunch was under discussion. Later, the right to be well born was recognized. All well and good, but thus far, home, the vision enlarged—not a thought of any outside that what about the mother who did not belong to the club and from whom all opportunity for bettering home conditions was taken. Right there was sounded the birth note of Service. Today, the club woman thinks of home in terms of the other woman's necessity rather than her own. Home no longer means her own selfish possession.

One Instantly Killed And Another Is Dying

GROESBECK, April 2.—Willie Cook, negro, was instantly killed, Ed Bevil is thought to be dying and F. L. Connor is painfully injured as a result of an explosion early this afternoon at the ice plant in this city.

The explosion was near the cooling tower when the ammonia tank blew up, the blast shaking the section of town in which the ice plant is located. At the time of the accident, the three men were working in a pit. The fumes from the ammonia tank let loose by the explosion strangled people in the vicinity of the tragic disaster.

Relief was rushed to the men and it was found that the negro had been instantly killed while Ed Bevil was found fatally wounded. At two o'clock this afternoon, he was reported dying.

Mr. Connor is manager and proprietor of the plant.

Reports received about 3:00 o'clock were to the effect that Mr. Bevil had died and that Mrs. Connor who has been visiting in Oklahoma City is now en route home by airplane. She will reach her husband about 5:00 o'clock, it is thought.

BOISE, Idaho.—Dying from bullet wounds, Daniel McLaughlin, prominent Idaho attorney, pleaded for leniency for his assailant. "I hope they will not deal too harshly with Taylor—He didn't know what he was doing," McLaughlin said. He was shot by Vern C. Taylor, another attorney, in a street brawl. McLaughlin died shortly afterwards.

PITTSBURG, Texas.—J. I. Buckett, well known farmer near here, was found dead in a field on his farm. A shotgun was at his side, leading authorities to believe that he committed suicide.

CONVENTION OPENS WITH ELABORATE RECEPTION; BUSINESS TAKEN UP

One of the most elaborate affairs ever witnessed in Mexia featured the opening of the Third District Convention of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs Tuesday afternoon, when 4:00 to 6:00 in the afternoon the delegates and visitors were received by the clubs of Mexia at the handsomely decorated Public Library.

As the guests approached the brilliant and lovely scene, they could catch strains of sweet music as played by the Elks' orchestra, the singing of many canaries and the chatter of the happy hosts and visitors.

The ceiling and lattice work surrounding the walls were covered with smilax and morning glories, festoons of wisteria and red wood blossoms, lavender and green predominating in every room. Japanese lanterns and umbrellas hung from the ceiling, all combining into a veritable fairyland, representing a spring garden and forming a perfect setting for the beautiful gowns worn.

The color scheme was also carried out in the ice course. The plate favors were sweet peas. In the center of the building was a huge pile of rock and "an old oaken bucket" hung in the wall from which Miss Frances Bass dispensed delicious punch to the guests. About 400 women called during the two happy hours.

ANTI-KLAN TICKET ELECTED IN DALLAS

DALLAS, Texas, April 2.—A recheck of the returns of the Dallas school board election today revealed that the entire anti-Klan ticket was re-elected. Earlier figures which showed John DeGrazier, Klan candidate, had won out over Clinton Russell, present head of the Board of Education, were reversed by later tabulations which gave Russell a lead of six votes over DeGrazier.

LATER.—Official recount will be necessary to determine the winner as the contest for the head of the board is so close, election officials said.

FORT WORTH, Texas.—Mrs. Maurice Goldman, Houston, was named president of the State Council of Jewish Women at the concluding session of the annual convention here. Houston will be the 1925 meeting place of the Jewish representatives.

The receiving line were Mrs. H. O. Cravens of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Julian Wood of Greenville, who will long be remembered here because of their active work in the Friday club and Mexia Library Association; Mrs. Henry Redmond of Corpus Christi, State President; Mrs. E. E. Maloney of Commerce, District President; Mrs. J. E. King of San Antonio, chairman of the Prison Reform Board; Mrs. J. E. Lindsay of Mt. Pleasant; Mrs. Maggie Barry of Texas A. and M.; Miss Shelton of Ft. Worth, Mrs. Robert Browning of Terrell and Mrs. Mills of Texarkana.

This event was followed Tuesday night by the program rendered at the First Methodist church.

At 9:00 o'clock this morning the meeting got under way again at the High School auditorium where the first business was transacted. About 125 delegates were present at that hour, banners posted over the auditorium signifying where each delegation was seated.

Luncheon was served in the dining room of the High School Building and the afternoon session convened in the auditorium at 1:30 p. m.

Fuller reports will appear in the Mexia Daily News in early issues of the sessions of the convention already held and of those to follow.

A drive through the oil fields will be enjoyed late this afternoon and the night session will be held at the Baptist church.

MAKERS OF MEXIA

Mexia is a good place to live. It is a city of beautiful and artistic homes, fine churches and progressive schools. Plans for the beautification of the city are constantly being built upon through the influence and support largely of the club women of Mexia. They are never asleep, but pursue the watchful working policy always and are now completing arrangements for the immediate equipment of the 12-acre Hughes Park in the heart of Mexia and have already provided playground equipment for a public recreational center. Welcome always to the City that Vision is Building.

Mexia is one of the six cities of Central Texas holding a franchise in the Texas Association Baseball League and has one of the finest ball parks in the State.

LONGING FOR THE OLIVE BRANCH

In her comprehensive address, so beautifully and inspiringly given at the First Methodist Church Tuesday night, Mrs. E. E. Maloney, District President of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, sounded the longing of mother's hearts everywhere. That longing is that there shall be no more war; that mothers will not have to furnish sons for cannon fodder, and therein, no doubt, she struck the chord that responded so unmistakably in the prolonged applause that resounded through the church when she completed her address.

Men and women everywhere are interested in preventing wars. Another war within the next few years participated in by this country, would drive it closer to the reefs of anarchy and the shoals of graft, dishonesty and destruction. The women are, therefore, not only interested in the cessation of wars on behalf of their own offspring but are rendering a patriotic and enduring service.

Should there ever be another war, the lesson of the last impresses those who bore the brunt of the battle that hereafter the wealth of the nation should be drafted as well as the womanhood and manhood.

It has been said that during the last war the soldier in the field got $1.10 for risking his life. The workman who fabricated the rifle got $15 a day. The capitalist who owned or ran the factory got $15,000 a day.

We are paying the bill. Succeeding generations will continue to pay. Taxes are heavy; everybody is grumbling for a reduction; the soldiers want a bonus but Big Business objects; the Department of Justice is finding the profiteers and war grafters slippery as eels.

The best way to prevent the recurrence of such conditions, is "to take war out of the market place and put it on a new basis entirely where burdens, financial and physical, shall be distributed equally among all."

This means a federal law drafting, in time of war, not only men for the armies, but labor and capital as well. If the government needs you for the army you go—and get thirty dollars a month. If it needs you for a munitions plant—you go there and get the civilian equivalent of thirty dollars a month, it being taken into the reckoning that a soldier's clothes, bed and board are furnished him. If Uncle Sam needs your photograph factory to make artillery fuses, he takes it and you get a nominal compensation—based on the value of the property. That is the gist of the law that is proposed Congress shall enact.

High School Glee Club to Entertain Next Friday Nite

The Mexia High School Glee Club under the able supervision of Miss Anita Ledbetter will present their first annual program at the High School Auditorium Friday night of this week.

Miss Ledbetter and her club has been working on this program for some months and to those who love music, promises to be one of the treats of the season. Among the number which will be rendered will be "Folk Songs," Choruses, sextettes, quartettes and readings.

Music lovers of Mexia have been looking forward with a great deal of enthusiasm to the date when this the first annual program of "Our Own Glee Club" would be given, and it is expected that the big auditorium will be packed to capacity for this occasion. A small admission will be charged.

General Coal Strike Threatened

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 2.—Instructions for all coal miners in the Southwest to remain on strike were sent out by union leaders here today following failure to reach an agreement on wages in negotiations with mine operators. About 35,000 men are affected. Union leaders placed the burden for the strike on the mine owners because of the latter's refusal to keep the 1923 contract which expired March 31, in force until a new agreement could be reached by arbitration.

A subcommittee attempting to draw up a compromise agreement for presentation to the joint conference of operators and miners, was in session until long after midnight. When the meeting adjourned without reaching an agreement, Andrew McGary, of Muskogee, Okla., president of union miners' organization in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas, sent telegraphic orders to his men to remain away from work. Similar instructions were sent to Kansas miners and others in the Southwest district.

"Circumstances later may justify for permitting independent operators to sign separate agreements, but we are asking all men to quit work now," McGary said.

sion, and work solely for her own loved ones. Thus the club woman abroad in the land became the home mission worker truly. She has ever since been on the outlook for her opportunity to better home life in general.

She soon came into contact with the home where a bestial father terrorized the children and sent the mother out as bread winner as well as child bearer. Again, the vision expanded, and the club woman found herself interested in laws for protection of child and of wife. She was lobbying for the juvenile court law, the mother's pension, better hours for working women, property rights for woman, and so on. Today, the outlook for the truly consecrated club woman is no longer her own home but the home at the lower round of the social ladder.

Response of the heart and the mind to the nobler impulses generated through study of great literature, soon imbued the club woman with the idea that the high ideals of club work and the principles of Christianity are one and the same. Leaving dogmas aside, the women went forth to minister to the bodies, the minds and the morals of fellow man. Only the hairs which split the denominational beliefs now separate the club from the church work. Our Saviour was the pioneer, may the founder, of Personal Service. His ministrations was by no means confined to His sermons. Moral uplift is handmade to the spiritual. Today the church is an ardent supporter of the club. The sound mind in the healthy body, self respect, enjoyment—these are all factors in church activity as well as in club—all combine in the greatest world force today—that of Personal Service. Within their several denominations we find the club women everywhere promoting baby clinics, clean athletics and recreation centers.

The point in my star which spells the School is all pervading. How different the policy of the three R's which our grandfathers followed from the three C's which the school represents today! "Reading," "ritin," "rithmetie" is giving way to "Culture, Christianity and Citizenship." The school as it is, is not the cramping of the mind with facts but the training of mind, body and morals for model citizens. The hot lunch, medical inspection, special day programs—all these are the outcome of the women's personal service in the schools. What avails a brilliant mind in an emaciated body? What means a powerful mind in a morally stunted soul? The club woman of today desires none of the mental education, but she does plead that it be made the equation for the all round student. The labor of Hercules in draining the swamp of Lena is not the circumstance to the labors of club women all over Texas to prevent the children's wading to school through mud and slush, to stop the chinks in the little red school house against the north winds. But all this is past history. The club women today are serving on our state boards of education, they are superintendents of our county schools, they are on the firing line everywhere, when the betterment of our Texas youth through our Texas schools is concerned. The Texas Federation was squarely behind the climax in our achievement. It is needless to tell you that I refer to the expert education survey now being made within our state. The woman lobbyist is now respected, because, her experience with the last legislature has placed her a dignified, convincing, sincere pleader for good. But, even higher than our state, the club woman has reached. She is again squarely on the firing line, in the thick of the fight for a new bureau in our national cabinet. She is asking that the American child have at least as much attention as does the cattle tick and the bouboonic rat. Our Education Survey, now in progress is intended to expose both the weakness and the strength of the Texas schools. Out of this the women will seek to do their bit in giving to Texas children a system of education, correlated from the United school district to our great Universities at Austin. The women of America are organized, and their weapons are whetted towards the Education bill, now before Congress. Had we no other right, we are justified to exist as the Texas Federation of Women's clubs for the earnestness which we have promoted better education and for the persistence with which we have pursued this policy. The strenuous work of the quarter of a century of our existence brings us as the last phase in education to the new crusade against illiteracy. Under the slogan, "Not an illiterate in Texas in 1930" we are organizing our forces. It were "the twice told tale to vex your crowsey ear" for you to hear the alarm percent of our boys in the World War who could not read or write. To those who served with our heroes of the Meuse-Argonne, or of Chateau Thierry, it is a pathetic tale brought home of how these men wearing their decorations for bravery were seen with their primers in the huts learning to read, "I see a cat!"—"I see a rat." My friends, this MUST NOT BE—at least not in TEXAS! The stigma of illiteracy rests upon us. It is timely for your president to sound the note of warning that there is much for us to do, if the point of our star christened "Education" or "The School" is to point upward in a glow of radiance. We have the Mexican, the negro, many colonies of foreigners, the tenant farmer,—don't carry the flattering unctious to your souls, that this is work for the sister state—IT IS OURS! The point in our star must lead to, "An Enlightened Citizenship from all Texas."

And on to the next point in our star—Our Community. Are we as club women giving our best service there? My faith in you of Third District is so profound that I predict your individual reports at this convention will show you up and doing along the line of community betterment. "Carry On" is your president's message, and with apology to Henry W. Longfellow,

"Let us now be up and doing
With a heart for any fate,
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

Discouragements come to us all—sometimes, the seed we plant takes a long period for germination—learn to labor—and to wait! Among your manifold privileges as the most progressive women ever known to any age, have we any more precious than that of rendering service to those with whom we are in daily contact? Is your home town clean, is it beautiful as it can be made, do your officers enforce your laws, have your citizens a high standard of morals, are proper safeguards around the youth of your community, are your laws practical to your special needs? These are some of the questions your president would have you ask yourself when you return home. One community in a sister state has almost solved the something new under the sun. This is, a crusade as a moral asset to the children. It is simple, yet bids fair to become a strong factor in solving the problem of the youth on the street. The plan is, to see that every back yard has play apparatus for days of sunshine and every home has attractive games for the shut in days. Think of that! Only a crude swing, a sand pile or a "teeter" without, and a set of blocks or a picture cutting within. Can this keep the child happy at home? At least it is worth the effort. That simple plan is sound moral philosophy. Keep the boy busy and contented in his own back yard, and you lessen materially the percent of juvenile delinquency.

And, now the last point of our star of Peace. What is the outlook of woman in her newly acquired Citizenship? Has she yet come to a just appreciation of her privileges wrapped in that tiny scrap of paper? Think about this carefully and seriously. It is the very essence of all which we are striving to accomplish. Our men bestowed upon us this blessed privilege.

lege. They are now weighing us in the balance, and, thus far, we are found wanting. First, we are not taking our ballot seriously; second we are not preparing ourselves to handle it intelligently. As women of this great Texas—(you know, in his campaign speeches, Governor Neff said, he felt that he was asking for the second greatest honor of our nation—the first, to be president of these United States, and the second, to guide the destinies of this glorious commonwealth of Texas)—united in a Federation 60,000 strong, we have stepped down from the pedestal where our men had placed us to be cherished and admired. Imposing confidence in us, they have bestowed upon us the same privileges they have enjoyed. They have invited us to share their citizenship—that same citizenship which has brought America to be the leading nation of all the world. Think of the responsibility—that we, the women of America, are expected to uphold that standard to which the men of our nation have brought us. Other nations look to us as protectors for the rights of humanity. Our ideals for citizenship lead the world. The Stars and Stripes is respected as its no other flag on the globe. Our duty as women is to uphold this standard. Our duty is to stand beside our men and hold aloft this symbol of national integrity, and of personal liberty. How can we do it? Through this tiny scrap of paper! Through it we can bring about measures, protect law enforcement, demand high ideals in our administrators of office and of law. We can do this conscientiously in all our local matters; we can guard the high standard of our state among the stars of the nation. We can maintain the standard already set for our great America.

Recently there passed into the fields Elysian, one whose utmost endeavor had been "to hitch the wagon" of our Nation "to the star" of Peace, with its five points of Home, Church, School, Community, and Citizenship, and "along the way he lighted the candles" of Love, Faith, Hope, Service and Loyalty.

He failed to see the completion of his dream, but to us "from falling hands he threw the torch," and it is our task to keep lighted the candles, which Woodrow Wilson left burning, until the ideals for which he truly gave his life are fulfilled, and every man "under his vine, and under his fig tree," can join the angles in their world-wide chorus, "On earth peace, good will to men."

I thank you.

Backed by soldiers, Mexican customs officials closed both international spans at eight o'clock. Many visitors expecting to return by nine o'clock were trapped as a result of the edict.

Saloons and gambling houses did a flourishing business through the night as a result. Many of the tourists unable to find accommodations at hotels, spent the night in saloons and gambling halls.

A GOOD LAXATIVE

Black-Draught Recommended by an Illinois Lady, Who Says It Helps Her.—"Fine for the Liver."

St. Elmo, Ill.—"I have used Black-Draught for three years," says Mrs. J. W. Boyd, a well-known member of this community. "I was visiting a friend who had used it for some time. I was in need of a laxative and I had a burning in my stomach. I was constipated. She gave me a dose of Black-Draught and it helped me, so I used it from then on. I think it is fine for the liver, too. I am glad to recommend it. "One day our pastor was visiting us, and he said his system seemed clogged and asked me to give him something to take. I gave him Black-Draught. He was much pleased with the results and bought a package, himself."

Constipation forces the system to absorb poisons that should be thrown out, causing pain, discomfort and tending to undermine your health. Black-Draught helps to relieve this condition by acting on the bowels, and by regulating the liver when it is torpid, thus helping to drive out many poisons in an easy, natural way.

Don't take chances! At the first indication of constipation, take Black-Draught. Costs only a cent a dose. Your local druggist, or dealer, sells Black-Draught. NC-153

GROESBECK

There was frost here Tuesday morning with thin ice in some places. It will do some damage it is thought to early garden truck but will do very little if any damage to the fruit crop as the temperature was not low enough to freeze the fruit that is still in the bloom. The ground is drying rapidly since the driving rain of last Friday night and planting of cotton will begin this week unless more rain should prevent. There is also much corn and other feed stuffs to be planted yet.

Rev. C. A. Buckley, Presiding Elder of the Corsicana District, preached at the Methodist Church here both morning and evening Sunday to large crowds. After the evening service he held the second Quarterly Conference of the year. Most of the Stewards and other officials of the church were present and presented their reports which showed the church in a healthy flourishing condition. The church has accepted its assessment for the Superannuate Endowment fund and at about 70% of it subscribed at the Sunday morning service a week ago.

The Groesbeck School Board at a recent meeting re-elected superintendent D. M. Major for another year which makes his third year in this place. He has signified his intention to accept the place. Mr. Major came to Groesbeck from the Hearn schools two years ago and has met with unusual success in handling this school. He is a first class school man and one of the hardest working superintendents in the state.

Mark Twain pointed out that man is the only animal that blushes.

Groesbeck Picks Brown For Mayor In Hot Election

GROESBECK, Texas, April 2.—What had promised to be a quiet city election in the forenoon today developed into one of the most hotly contested during the afternoon, resulting in a total of 600 votes being cast when only 627 poll taxes had been paid. L. L. Brown was elected Mayor over W. A. Browder with a majority of 59 votes and C. S. Bond and R. M. Usry were chosen as commissioners. All three of these men are well known business men with progressive ideas and are expected to champion a policy for liberal city development. L. L. Brown is proprietor of the Reisen Hotel and owner of a number of brick buildings and has large land holdings near this city. C. S. Bond is of the firm of Bond Brothers Dry Goods, and besides his mercantile interest has considerable real estate holdings in and around the city. R. M. Usry is a real estate agent and has real estate interests and was at one time County Commissioner.

DALLAS, Texas.—Lavenia Twitty, negro, is under arrest here charged with the murder last January of Ed Reed, negro taxi driver. Reed was killed to his death in Oak Cliff by a mysterious phone call for a rent car. Twitty, it was said, confessed to officers he murdered the driver to rescue his automobile.

Former Mexia Man Burned To Death Last Saturday

Last Saturday in Corsicana, Mr. Ed Weaver was burned to death in his room at a rooming house. The accident happened about 6 a. m. and is supposed to have been caused by escaping gas in his room exploding when he started to light the fire. The noise of the explosion was heard in an adjoining room and when help reached him he was lying on the floor, but not yet dead. Death relieved his sufferings about 10 a. m.

Mr. Weaver was until recently book-keeper for the Central Texas Grocery company here, but was recently transferred to Corsicana, his family, consisting of his wife and two daughters, remaining here until the close of the schools. They reside on Liberty street, and have the sympathy of the entire community in their great sorrow.

The funeral occurred Sunday afternoon with interment in the Corsicana cemetery.

Japan with 55 million persons has less than a million dairy cows.

EMPORIA, Kans.—William Allen White, distinguished Kansan, is not elated over President Coolidge's prospects for re-election. "The Coolidge situation doesn't look good to me—and I'm for him, too," the Emporia sage said. "Mr. Coolidge is going to have trouble. I don't know whether it will be in the convention or in the election. But I am beginning to doubt if we can elect him if we nominate him."

KANSAS CITY.—Mrs. Clara Mering was seriously burned when she aided in the rescue of her three little daughters from fire which destroyed their home.

PROGRESS

THE PROSPERITY of a community is not measured by population, but by its civic and commercial progress and close cooperation of fellow citizens

A handful of workers, well organized will achieve more than a city full of drones.

Team work is what counts in everything. A prominent football coach recently said: "Give me a team of average ability who will work together, each with the other and all for the team and I will win over any team made up solely of individual stars."

Individual ability makes great men—shining lights, but it is mass co-operation of energetic men of civic spirit, home pride and community enterprise that builds a town's progress and prosperity.

LUDENDORFF IS ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF TREASON

MUNICH, April 1.—General Ludendorff was acquitted today on charges of treason for his share in the embryonic beer cellar putsch of November, 1923.

Adolf Hitler, one of eight other defendants, was found guilty and sentenced to five years imprisonment.

Troops and special police kept people moving on the streets and broke up all gatherings of two or more, fearful of a nationalist demonstration.

Word that General Ludendorff had been freed was received with enthusiasm.

Reichswehr marching with rifles on their shoulders and "potato masher" hand grenades stuffed in their belts, prevented any outbursts, however.

Of the defendants, Ludendorff was the only one completely exonerated. Hitler, together with Weber, Kriebel and Poehrer, was found guilty of high treason. They were fined 200 gold marks and sentenced to five years in the fortress.

The whole affair had its comedy aspect, however. It was explained that these four would be freed on probation within six months and that they need not serve longer "if they behave themselves."

The remaining defendants, Bruckner, Roehm, Fernet, Wagner and Frick, were found guilty of aiding high treason. They were fined 100 gold marks each and sentenced to 15 months' imprisonment. These later sentences were immediately commuted and the defendants will be released on probation.

Other distinguished entries included dogs from the kennels of the W. L. Branham, Chicago, president of the National Fox and Wolf Hunters Association; R. S. Hays of Spencer, West Virginia; Judge W. M. Wallace, Shreveport, millionaire oil man and dog fancier; and V. C. Spaulding, Monroe City, Missouri.

Don't Use Texas
Steer Bones
For Mah Jongg

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, April 2.—

A protest against the use of Texas Steers' bones to make Mah Jongg sets was the substance of a resolution adopted by the Y M. S. Club, a local organization.

The city recently offered for sale several carloads of bones which Mah Jongg manufacturers bid on. The resolution stated that as the history of the state was so closely related to the Texas steer it would be inappropriate to desecrate the bones of the steers by making Mah Jongg characters out of them.

On account of the meeting of the Third District Federation of Women's Clubs of Texas, the Nowlin Post of the American Legion and Auxiliary did not meet in their hall Tuesday night. SPORTLIGHTS

By BAB

Two real games are scheduled here for Thursday and Friday when the Mexia Gushers meet the Tulsa Oilers at Gusher Park. The Oilers have met two defeats at the hands of the Marlin Bathers of the Texas Association and the outcome of the games here this week should determine pretty well the standing of the Gushers in the Texas Association as compared with the Bathers, and the Waco Indians who meet the Yannigans this afternoon at Waco. The Gushers have just returned from Cleburne where they met the Denver Western Longhorns in a series of two games
Sunday and Monday. The last game was lost to the strong Western aggregation by the score of 12 to 6.

The game Sunday stood 12 to 9 in favor of the Western team.

The showing of the Gushers against the Denver team speaks well for the Mexia team. The scores were not lopsided and the Gushers could hit; only the night infield playing of the stronger team from the West preventing them from taking off a larger share of the scores.

The Waco Tigrasses defeated the Canton sextette in Waco Saturday night by the close and uncomfortable score of 20 to 19. The Munday sextette stands between the Waco Tigresses and the Texas championship.

The Waco Indians will oppose the Tulsa Oilers of the Western League
Wednesday afternoon in Waco.

The Dallas Steers of the Texas League defeated the Waco Indians in their game Sunday afternoon in Waco by a score of 5 to 6. Two fluke home runs featured the performance of the Steers.

The Marlin Bathers defeated the Tulsa Yannigans at Marlin Sunday afternoon in the best played game of the season. York, who pitched well the entire game, singled sharply to center field in the fourth inning, scoring Alexander, for what proved to be the only score of the game.

The pitching staff of the Corsicana club of the Texas Association has been completed. The services of "Guber Bill" Hollis, formerly with the Houston Buffaloes, Cotton States clubs and also with the Gumbo Busters last season and the year before, and Adolf
Arguljo, who was with the Gumbo Busters last season and drafted at the end of the season by the New York Yankees of the American League, will again don the Corsicana uniform and take their time on the ground. With these two additions, the pitching staff is in the best of condition with Cantrell, Linn, Hollis and Arguljo, righthanders and Gernandt, leftsider, secured from the Omaha

Buffaloes of the Western League.
With the acquisition of these two pitchers, the securing of a firstbaseman for the Corsicana club is all that remains to be completed. It is probable that in the event that a stellar firstbaseman is not secured, one of the infielders will be shifted to the initial bag. Grubb may get the assignment.

The Temple Surgeons of the Texas
Association defeated the Waco Texas
Specials 4 to 0 in their exhibition game which was played at Temple
Saturday afternoon.

The Marlin Bathers of the Texas
Association will play exhibition games with the Cleburne club April 5-6.
Faris April 8, Tyler April 9-10.

the North Richland producing area

tive than any in recent months. Several tests are due for completion in

Newspaper Dean 80 Wednesday

NEW YORK, April 1.—Major George Haven Putman, Civil War Veteran and dean of American publishers, is 80 years old tomorrow. He sees radio as the third great invention in his sixty years of publishing to hinder the sale of books. "Thirty years ago came the automobile and a decade ago the moving pictures arrived," the veteran head of the house of G. P. Putman & Sons, told the United Press in an interview. "Book buying is done with luxury money. The auto and movie diverted this extra money. And now comes the radio which consumes the time formerly occupied in reading." "How will the publishing business overcome it?" he was asked. "We will have to make books more worth while," was the quick answer. "I do not think books will be broadcast in my time, but it is humanly possible in the future. How over the copyright question will have to be settled."

The octogenarian referred to the power of the Post Office Department to put a book on the "black list" as an evidence of tyrannical censorship. "It's nobody's business what a grown-up man or woman wants to read," said the major with brown eyes flashing behind his steel rimmed glasses. "I am opposed to supervision of publishing—except for children. Give a board of censors power and they are bound to become arbitrary."

TO PLAY FOR HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP OF U. S. AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 2. (United Press.)—A tournament for champions only, to decide the high school basketball championship of the United States, will open here Tuesday in the first cage scrap of the seventh Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament. The meet is under the auspices of the University of Chicago.

Winning teams from more than thirty States are here for the high school basketball classic. Play will continue until Saturday, April 5, when Alonzo A. Stagg, athletic director of the University of Chicago, will present the national winners with a gold-plated basketball, the first trophy.

To avoid disappointment of teams that have traveled thousands of miles only to be eliminated in the first round of the tournament, a consolation tournament is to be held for the first time this year. It will allow each of the teams entered at least two chances to show their stuff.

Interest in many communities has been so great that citizens have raised the money by popular subscription or public benefits to pay railroad fare of the team members to the meet. New Mexico, Tennessee and New York teams were sent to the tourney this way in 1923. In several instances newspapers conducted campaigns to raise the money to send their city's team.

Limited to Champions. The meet this year is limited for the first time to State champions and teams with exceptional records. Hundreds of letters have come to Chicago University athletic officials asking for invitations to the tourney.

In 1921 the tournament was won by Cedar Rapids High School, Cedar Rapids, Ia., which defeated Crosby High School, Waterbury, Conn., in the finals. In 1922 Lexington High School, Lexington, Ky., capped first honors. Forty teams completed in 1923, representing thirty-one States and including twenty-nine State champions. The first four place winners were Kansas City, Kan.; Rockford, Ill.; Charleston, S. C. and Muskegon, Mich.

State and interscholastic tournaments have been run off during the past two months and the teams arriving here today are coached to the last notch for the big event. Fostered by the University of Chicago the meet has given teams from every section of the country an opportunity to see the skill and ability of teams from other points.

Four Prizes Offered. Four prizes will be offered, both in the main tourney and in the consolation event. In addition, members of the four highest teams will be given individual medals. The prizes all conform with the "intrinsic value" ruling.

In effect in the majority of State associations. Champion teams from Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, Missouri, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington and Wyoming were arriving on every train today. Many of the teams were accompanied by enthusiastic supporters and several schools brought along the school band.

It is estimated that the big tourney will attract at least 500 playing athletes. Some schools, rated as strong by dopsters who have studied the national basketball situation, are Windsor, Col.; Simpson High School, Birmingham, Ala.; Holyoke High School, Holyoke, Mass.; Manchester, N. H.; Woodrow Wilson High, Portsmouth, Va.; Uniontown, Pa.; Wilmington, Del.; Rawlins, Wyo.; Valley City, N. D.; Flint Mich.; Chattanooga, Tenn.; Central High School, Houston, Texas, Charleston, S. C., and Atlanta, Ga.

Nowlin Notes

More pay for All O. T. C. Men Under Proposed Law. To remedy an apparent discrimination against enlisted men who were candidates in Officers' Training Camps after June 30, 1918, and men who enlisted for the sole purpose of entering the camps, Representative Luther A. Johnson of Texas has introduced a bill in Congress which would authorize the payment of claims of all men of the Army and Marine Corps for additional pay for periods of training for commissions in the combatant branches of the Army and Marine Corps at any time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918.

As previously reported in the Weekly, enlisted men who attended Officers' Training Camps before June 30, 1918, are entitled to the difference between the pay they received and $100 a month, according to a ruling of the Comptroller General based on the Appropriation Act of June 15, 1917. Under the Appropriation Act of July 9, 1918, the pay of these same men reverted on July 1, 1918, to the pay of their grades. It was later ruled that men who were enlisted in the Army for the purpose of attending the training camps were not entitled to the $100 rate.

It is estimated that approximately 10,000 former O. R. C. candidates will be benefited if the new bill becomes a law.

The estimated annual income of the Baptists of Texas is $202,596,812 according to figures which have recently been compiled by the executive board of the denomination in this State, Dr. F. S. Groner, general secretary of the executive board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas asserts. If all the Baptists of Texas were tithers, faithfully giving their tenth to the church causes, the denomination would receive $20,259,681 annually to carry on its work, Dr. Groner said.

ON THE WAY DOWN TOWN

By SLYBOOTS Tom Meador has surprised his friends. They thought he could shoot a lot better than he did recently when the Mexia Gun Club had its anniversary shoot at the Gun Club Battle Field. He didn't hit a thing but the air, although he tried 150 times, participating in every event. He later explained that since Mexia has entered quite a number of visitors, he did not want to make them feel badly by asserting his superior eye, steadier nerve and more accurate aim. He didn't however, he made his boosters in the Mexia Gun Club feel ashamed of themselves. Instead of their crack shot, Waco marksmen referred to him as "Mexia's cracked shot."

He stated today that a couple of the members of the Bissextile club visited his photographic studio early this morning. He arranged the chair for one of them to have her picture taken and as he was eying her through his machine, the maiden viewed exclaimed, "Now, try to do me justice Mr. Meador! The photographers never do!"

To this her companion from the Bissextiles remarked: "O! don't ask for justice, ask for mercy, dear. That's what you need."

When the ladies came down stairs,

Cream Clears A Stuffed-Up Head

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffling. Count fifty. All the stiffness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine. (adv.)

Don't Judge Pictures By Frames Around Them

Most people are so heartless and possess so little of the quality of human kindness that all they see in anyone is what is on the outside. Naturally those who are handicapped in presenting a pleasing appearance by pimples, blotches, "breaking out," eczema, etc. on their skin are not going to get any attention. That is the reason you find such folks so backward and shrinking from the "cold shoulder" they have come to expect.

You can "make the frame as lovely as the picture really is" by simply getting rid of those skin disfigurements, if you will just use the wonderful Black and White Ointment. Then your good nature and sweet ways will stand out without any drawback, and folks will want to be around you. It is economically priced, in liberal packages. The 50c size contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have it.—(Adv.)

TWO KILLED IN EXPLOSION AT GROESBECK

Harlan Fiske Stone, New Attorney General Important Convention Of Women In Session Here

Sessions Well Attended Great Crowd Assembles For President's Night

Crowding the auditorium, Sunday Hudson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, visitors and delegates from all parts of Northeast Texas and local citizens assembled Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and were thrilled by the splendid program on "President's Night" when the first formal program of the three days annual convention of Third District club women met in their Twenty-Third Annual session in this city.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. R. C. Kimball of Deport, Vice-President. She presided with the grace and ease of one accustomed to such duties, saying those things by way of introduction to each number which made it easier for the number to be presented and received.

The addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor E. Watson for the City of Mexia and by Mrs. W. M. White for the Women of Mexia.

The response to the addresses of welcome was by Mrs. Will C. Anderson, of Wimsboro, who spoke very flatteringly of Mexia and with impressive beauty of the gratefulness in the hearts of those who are now guests in Mexia homes. She remarked on the privilege that was a city's that was honored by being selected as a convention city and stated that the women gathered in annual session in Mexia were trying to do their part in the world to develop ideals of citizenship and advance the interests of all the people. The public was invited to all sessions of the convention.

"Greetings" were extended by Mrs. Henry Redmond, President of Texas Federation of Women's clubs, of Corsicana. She was received with much pleasure by the large audience and her address followed closely, as she stressed the need of education for herself, the gospel of brotherhood and the beauty and service of a world view of citizenship, bringing Peace a little closer than it has ever been before.

The address of the evening was by Mrs. E. E. Maloney of Commerce, which thrilled her auditors and provoked prolonged applause at its conclusion. It is published in full in today's Mexia Daily News.

The church had been decorated for the occasion by a committee from Mexia's clubs and enhanced the brilliant scene, with the foliage of Springtime charmingly arranged around the altar and chairs occupied by those who participated in the program.

Mrs. Roy Akin presented an organ solo which was greatly appreciated by the gathering throng.

The invocation was by Rev. E. H.

Welcome Women!

Mrs. W. M. White's welcome to the clubs now in annual district convention here, Tuesday, was as follows:

Dear women of the Federated Clubs:

You have come up from your "queen's gardens" to enter our heart's sanctuary and there you may still hold royal court, while every woman is willing subject to the true power of purpose attempt accom-

"Woman's New Outlook" Subject Of Address By Third District President

"A magnificent address" was the general verdict Tuesday night of the throng that packed the First Methodist church and listened with rapt interest to the annual message of Mrs. E. E. Maloney, Commerce, President Third District Texas Federation of Women's clubs. Her address was as follows:

Members of Third District and Friends:

As your president stands before you for the first time in her official duty, her most appealing thought is, Woman's New Outlook for Home, Church, School and Citizenship. She wishes she might so apply this thought as to impress upon you as her message, the privileges and the opportunities which this outlook gives for developing the highest ideals in a well rounded life. For, really, my friends, that is the epitome of all our effort, to lift human life to a higher plane. But, above all this, the Peace star shines. I wish your imagination were so strong that you could close your eyes and see the beautiful picture arranged by our American artist, Blashfield—you are all familiar with his beautiful group of angels chiming the blessed bells of "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Far back into the ages of myth, we find the story, that a new city was built; the gods wanted to give it a name; they could not decide; at length it was agreed that, whoever, could present the most appropriate gift, might have the naming of the city. Minerva, by many called Athens, commanded the earth to bring forth the olive tree; Neptune or Poseidon, invoked the sea to produce the war-horse. Minerva won, so the new city was called "Athens." The olive branch of Peace became patrons of this city; thus war was vanquished and Peace was triumphant. Today, the new women are, like Minerva of old, consecrating their very lives to Peace propaganda. With the Blashfield angels they are singing in world wide chorus, "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Next year, women come from the Old World, each bearing her olive branch for the International Council of Women.

In the meantime our own Federation is unifying this Peace, Blessed Peace. Your president does not feel that she is assuming too much to pledge every single club woman of Third District to this world wide slogan—"No More War!" We were all jubilant when we heard of that tiny white pennant's going into the dining car of Generalissimo Foch. We then felt the dove of Peace hovering over us, but now we tremble lest the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse frighten her away.

The fiery cross is going the rounds to tell us, "Buckle on your armor, and fight for World Peace."

We women of America have stood behind the firing lines in three generations. Our great, great grandmothers were the Molly Pitchers who loaded the cannon when the men were gone. They were the Betsy Rosses to unfurl Old Glory who has never yet gone down in defeat. Our grandmothers were the "Girls in the Home-spun Dress" who shared the hardships of those who wore the Gray. And we ourselves were a vital part of the work for our boys over there. We may not have shared physically the horrors of this war, but we kept the home fires eliminating those of a purely routine function, let us pause before the more vital sections. First of all, we have Americanization—what more powerful factor for peace than an immigrant harmonized with his privileges of living under the American flag and of realizing his ideals of personal liberty and the pursuit of happiness? But that is not all—have we Americanized ourselves as well? Born in American of American parents, many of us have never considered what that means. Many of foreign born, naturalized, is a better American than we. Again, are we harmonizing ourselves to the benefits of association with the foreign born? Americanization is a reciprocal process. Allied with this work is our Training for Citizenship. Again, the lever turns both ways; not only are we training the foreign born, when naturalized, to appreciate his privilege, but, we are training our own boys and girls, who attain majority, to appreciate what their new born privilege implies. We seek to make every American who attains the right to his vote, feel that he has been accorded a sacred trust. We are seeking to bring our Motion Pictures to that standard where American ideals are upheld. My friends, can you imagine any form of propaganda more conducive to Peace ideals than this promotion of Americanization in Citizenship fostered by the General Federation of Women's clubs? Remember this organization penetrates into the smallest hamlet of the remotest corner in our country? We never have a Texas Federation but what we meet delegates who have come as much as one hundred miles to take the train for the convention city.

Next—the Federation operates its departments of Public Welfare. Through this, Health, Child Welfare, Protection of Property from fire, and the crusade against the insidious narcotic, are promulgated. Add to Americanization a sound body, children safeguarded, menace to property relieved, then is not our newly acquired citizen nearer our ideal of peace and plenty abroad in the land?

Pardon a word concerning the newest phase of our work, "The Syndicate of Sin" as it is called. This is specifically our District work because our own Mrs. Lindsay is state chairman of the Anti-Narcotic crusade. In proper time, Mrs. Lindsay will give you some facts which will convince you that America is confronted with a more deadly menace than she is by the "rum runners" along our coasts. Already this poison has been poured into the vitals of our school boys and girls.

Closely allied with our Public Welfare is our department of Home and Economics. With this we group Thrift, Rural Life and Home Demonstration. By this means, the American home, even to the tiny cross road is placed upon a more thrifty, scientific plane. The marvelous work being done by our County Demonstrators is developing a happy, contented life on the farm. With their various clubs our boys and girls are learning to make rural life, not only brimfull of interest, but remunerative. Practical homemaking as sponsored by the club women tends towards the very spirit of peace.

The Federation is also furnishing the Good Roads movement, also state departments of federated work. Eliminating those of a purely routine function, let us pause before the more vital sections. First of all, we have Americanization—what more powerful factor for peace than an immigrant harmonized with his privileges of living under the American flag and of realizing his ideals of personal liberty and the pursuit of happiness? But that is not all—have we Americanized ourselves as well? Born in American of American parents, many of us have never considered what that means. Many of foreign born, naturalized, is a better American than we. Again, are we harmonizing ourselves to the benefits of association with the foreign born? Americanization is a reciprocal process. Allied with this work is our Training for Citizenship. Again, the lever turns both ways; not only are we training the foreign born, when naturalized, to appreciate his privilege, but, we are training our own boys and girls, who attain majority, to appreciate what their new born privilege implies. We seek to make every American who attains the right to his vote, feel that he has been accorded a sacred trust. We are seeking to bring our Motion Pictures to that standard where American ideals are upheld. My friends, can you imagine any form of propaganda more conducive to Peace ideals than this promotion of Americanization in Citizenship fostered by the General Federation of Women's clubs? Remember this organization penetrates into the smallest hamlet of the remotest corner in our country? We never have a Texas Federation but what we meet delegates who have come as much as one hundred miles to take the train for the convention city.

With all these forces organized—and you know we have still more with the complex organization called the Texas Federation of Women's clubs—and in operating towards betterment of our citizenship, not alone in Texas, but in every state of our Union, are we not justified in feeling that, sooner or later, all the glory of a world wide Peace, is to be our reward?

In the meantime we are fostering education from Kindergarten to University by way of the public library. We are loaning our money to deserving boys and girls otherwise deprived of higher education. My friends, is it not all very worthwhile? What is this great Federation of ours? It is nothing more than the application to women of our motto, "United we stand, divided we fall." Would that every member of Third District might realize the power which lies in concentrated action.

Now, while we have joined as a world power working for World Peace, let us come back and stand upon the threshold of our individual opportunity as a world power. Ralph Waldo Emerson you know, said, "Hitch your wagon to a star, but do not forget to light the candles by the way." Living as we do in the age when woman's privileges are greatest, we have hitched our wagon to the star of Peace. Which are the candles we must light along the way? As the blessed single star guided the Shepherds to the Prince of Peace, so does our single star lead us onward to the universal Brotherhood of Man.

For the points of our guiding star, let us name, the Home, the Church, the School, the Community and Citizenship, with Peace the crown of them all. Look beneath the surface, and there interpret. You will find, that no matter what our line of divergence, the fundamental is, the Home. For out of the Home come all the elements which mold the individual, and from the aggregate of standards from these individuals, comes the national mind and morals. In the very beginning of the woman's club, attention was centered upon the comfort, the beauty, the general welfare, of the individual member's own home. The desire was to place good books on the home library table; pictures were studied, that the best might be in the home. Soon, scientific food values were matters of interest. The children's school lunch was under discussion. Later

One Instantly Killed And Another Is Dying

GROESBECK, April 2.—Willie Cook, negro, was instantly killed, Ed Beville is thought to be dying and F. L. Connor is painfully injured as a result of an explosion early this afternoon at the ice plant in this city.

The explosion was near the cooling tower when the ammonia tank blew up, the blast shaking the section of town in which the ice plant is located. At the time of the accident, the three men were working in a pit. The fumes from the ammonia tank let loose by the explosion strangled people in the vicinity of the tragic disaster.

Relief was rushed to the men and it was found that the negro had been instantly killed while Ed Beville was found fatally wounded. At two o'clock this afternoon, he was reported dying.

Mr. Connor is manager and proprietor of the plant.

Reports received about 3:00 o'clock were to the effect that Mr. Beville had died and that Mrs. Connor who has been visiting in Oklahoma City is now en route home by airplane. She will reach her husband about 5:00 o'clock, it is thought.

BOISE, Idaho.—Dying from bullet wounds, Daniel McLaughlin, prominent Idaho attorney, pleaded for leniency for his assailant. "I hope they will not deal too harshly with Taylor—He didn't know what he was doing," McLaughlin said. He was shot by Vern C. Taylor, another attorney, in a street brawl. McLaughlin died shortly afterwards.

the receiving line were Mrs. H. O.

Cravens of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Julian Wood of Greenville, who will long be remembered here because of their active work in the Friday club and Mexia Library Association; Mrs. Henry Redmond of Corpus Christi, State President; Mrs. E. E. Maloney of Commerce, District President; Mrs. J. E. King of San Antonio, chairman of the Prison Reform Board; Mrs. J. E. Lindsay of Mt. Pleasant; Mrs. Maggie Barry of Texas A. and M.; Miss Shelton of Ft. Worth, Mrs. Robert Browning of Terrell and Mrs. Mills of Texarkana.

This event was followed Tuesday night by the program rendered at the First Methodist church. At 9:00 o'clock this morning the meeting got under way again at the High School auditorium where the first business was transacted. About 125 delegates were present at that time. The program was under discussion. Later the receiving line were Mrs. H. O. ANTI-KLAN TICKET ELECTED IN DALLAS

DALLAS, Texas, April 2.—A check of the returns of the Dallas school board election today revealed that the entire anti-Klan ticket was re-elected. Earlier figures which showed John DeGrazier, Klan candidate, had won out over Clinton Russell, present head of the Board of Education, were reversed by later tabulations which gave Russell a lead of six votes over DeGrazier.

LATER.—Official recount will be necessary to determine the winner as the contest for the head of the board is so close, election officials said.

CONVENTION OPENS WITH ELABORATE RECEPTION; BUSINESS TAKEN UP

One of the most elaborate affairs ever witnessed in Mexia featured the opening of the Third District Convention of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs Tuesday afternoon, when 4:00 to 6:00 in the afternoon the delegates and visitors were received by the clubs of Mexia at the handsomely decorated Public Library.

As the guests approached the brilliant and lovely scene, they could catch strains of sweet music as played by the Elks' orchestra, the singing of many canaries and the chatter of the happy hosts and visitors.

The ceiling and lattice work surrounding the walls were covered with smilax and morning glories, festoons of wisteria and red wood blossoms, lavender and green predominating in every room. Japanese lanterns and umbrellas hung from the ceiling, all combining into a

This event was followed Tuesday night by the program rendered at the First Methodist church. At 9:00 o'clock this morning the meeting got under way again at the High School auditorium where the first business was transacted. About 125 delegates were present at that time. MAKERS OF MEXIA

Mexia is a good place to live. It is a city of beautiful and artistic homes, fine churches and progressive schools. Plans for the beautification of the city are constantly being built upon through the influence and support largely of the club women of Mexia. They are never asleep, but pursue the watchful working policy always and are now completing arrangements for the immediate equipment of the 12-acre Hughes Park in the heart of Mexia and have already provided playground equipment for a public recreational center. Welcome always to the City that Vision is Building.

Mexia is one of the six cities of Central Texas holding a franchise in the Texas Association Baseball League and has one of the finest ball parks in the State.

LONGING FOR THE OLIVE BRANCH

In her comprehensive address, so beautifully and inspiringly given at the First Methodist Church Tuesday night, Mrs. E. E. Maloney, District President of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs sounded the longing of mother's hearts everywhere. That longing is that there shall be no more war; that mothers will not have to furnish sons for cannon fodder, and therein, no doubt, she struck the chord that responded so unmistakably in the prolonged applause that resounded through the church when she completed her address.

Men and women everywhere are interested in preventing wars. Another war within the next few years participated in by this country, would drive it closer to the reefs of anarchy and the shoals of graft, dishonesty and destruction. The women are, therefore, not only interested in the cessation of wars on behalf of their own offspring but are rendering a patriotic and enduring service.

Should there ever be another war, the lesson of the last impresses those who bore the brunt of the battle that hereafter the wealth of the nation should be drafted as well as the womanhood and manhood.

It has been said that during the last war the soldier in the field got $1.10 for risking his life. The workman who fabricated the rifle got $15 a day. The capitalist who owned or ran the factory got $15,000 a day.

We are paying the bill. Succeeding generations will continue to pay. Taxes are heavy; everybody is grumbling for a reduction; the soldiers want a bonus but Big Business objects; the Department of Justice is finding the profiteers and war grafters slippery as eels.

The best way to prevent the recurrence of such conditions, is "to take war out of the market place and put it on a new basis entirely where burdens, financial and physical, shall be distributed equally among all."

This means a federal law drafting, in time of war, not only men for the armies, but labor and capital as well. If the government needs you for the army you go—and get thirty dollars a month. If it needs you for a munitions plant—you go there and get the civilian equivalent of thirty dollars a month, it being taken into the reckoning that a soldier's clothes, bed and board are furnished him. If Uncle Sam needs your photograph factory to make artillery fuses, he takes it and you get a nominal compensation—based on the value of the property. That is the gist of the law that it is proposed Congress shall enact.

LULING.—Police here are looking for a burglar who makes a specialty of entering homes and stealing trousers. The trousers usually contain enough spare change to make the effort worth while, according to the police.

High School Glee Club to Entertain Next Friday Nite

The Mexia High School Glee Club under the able supervision of Miss Anita Ledbetter will present their first annual program at the High School Auditorium Friday night of this week.

Miss Ledbetter and her club has been working on this program for some months and to those who love music, promises to be one of the treats of the season. Among the number which will be rendered will be "Folks Songs," Choruses, sextettes, quartettes and readings.

Music lovers of Mexia have been looking forward with a great deal of enthusiasm to the date when this first annual program of "Our Own Glee Club" would be given, and it is expected that the big auditorium will be packed to capacity for this occasion. A small admission will be charged.

General Coal Strike Threatened

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 2.—Instructions for all coal miners in the Southwest to remain on strike were sent out by union leaders here today following failure to reach an agreement on wages in negotiations with mine operators. About 35,000 men are affected. Union leaders placed their burden for the strike on the mine owners because of the latter's refusal to keep the 1923 contract which expired March 31, in force until a new agreement could be reached by arbitration.

A subcommittee attempting to draw up a compromise agreement for presentation to the joint conference of operators and miners, was in session until long after midnight. When the meeting adjourned without reaching an agreement, Andrew McGary, of Muskogee, Okla., president of union miners organization in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas, sent telegraphic orders to his men to remain away from work. Similar instructions were sent to Kansas miners and others in the Southwest district.

"Circumstances later may justify permitting independent operators to sign separate agreements, but we are asking all men to quit work now," McGary said.

WOMAN'S OUTLOOK

sion, and work solely for her own loved ones. Thus the club woman abroad in the land became the home mission worker truly. She has even since been on the outlook for her opportunity to better home life in general.

She soon came into contact with the home where a bestial father terrorized the children and sent the mother out as bread winner as well.

And on to the next point in our star—Our Community. Are we as club women giving our best service there? My faith in you of Third District is so profound that I predict your individual reports at this convention will show you up and doing along the line of community betterment. "Carry On" is your president's message, and with apology to Henry W. Longfellow,

"Let us now be up and doing
With a heart for any fate,
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

Discouragements come to us all—sometimes, the seed we plant takes a long period for germination—learn to labor—and to wait! Among your manifold privileges as the most progressive women ever known to any age, have we any more precious than that of rendering service to those with whom we are in daily contact? Is your home town clean, is it beautiful as it can be made, do your officers enforce your laws, have your citizens a high standard of morals, are proper safeguards around the youth of your community, are your laws practical to your special needs? These are some of the questions your president would have you ask yourself when you return home. One community in a sister state has almost solved the something new under the sun. This is, a crusade as a moral asset to the children. It is simple, yet bids fair to become a strong factor in solving the problem of the youth on the street. The plan is, to see that every back yard has play apparatus for days of sunshine and every home has attractive games for the shut in days. Think of that! Only a crude swing, a sand pile or a "teeter" without, and a set of blocks or a picture cutting within. Can this keep the child happy at home? At least it is worth the effort. That simple plan is sound moral philosophy. Keep the boy busy and contented in his own back yard, and you lessen materially the percent of juvenile delinquency.

And, now the last point of our star of Peace. What is the outlook of woman in her newly acquired citizenship? Has she yet come to a just appreciation of her privileges wrapped in that tiny scrap of paper? Think about this carefully and seriously. It is the very essence of all which we are striving to accomplish. Our men bestowed upon us this blessed privilege.

A GOOD LAXATIVE

Black-Draught Recommended by an Illinois Lady, Who Says It Helps Her.—"Fine for the Liver."

St. Elmo, Ill.—"I have used Black-Draught for three years," says Mrs. J. W. Boyd, a well-known member of this community. "I was visiting a friend who had used it for some time. I was in need of a laxative and I had a burning in my stomach. I was constipated. She gave me a dose of Black-Draught and it helped me, so I used it from then on. It certainly benefited me. I think it is fine for the liver, too. I am glad to recommend it. One day our pastor was visiting us, and he said his system seemed clogged and asked me to give him something to take. I gave him Black-Draught. He was much pleased with the results and bought a package, himself."

Constipation forces the system to absorb poisons that should be thrown out, causing pain, discomfort and tending to undermine your health. Black-Draught helps to relieve this condition by acting on the bowels, and by regulating the liver when it is torpid, thus helping to drive out many poisons in an easy, natural way.

Don't take chances! At the first indication of constipation, take Black-Draught. Costs only a cent a dose. Your local druggist, or dealer, sell Black-Draught. NC-153

NEWS FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

GROESBECK

There was frost here Tuesday morning with thin ice in some places. It will do some damage it is thought to early garden truck but will do very little if any damage to the fruit crop as the temperature was not low enough to freeze the fruit that is still in the bloom. The ground is drying rapidly since the driving rain of last Friday night and planting of cotton will begin this week unless more rain should prevent. There is also much corn and other feed stuffs to be planted yet.

Rev. C. A. Bickley, Presiding Elder of the Corsicana District, preached at the Methodist Church here both morning and evening Sunday to large crowds. After the evening service he held the second Quarterly Conference of the year. Most of the Stowards and other officials of the church were present and presented their reports which showed the church is in a healthy flourishing condition. The church has accepted its assessment for the Superannuate Endowment fund and at about 70% of it subscribed at the Sunday morning service a week ago.

The Groesbeck School Board at a recent meeting re-elected superintendent D. M. Major for another year which makes his third year in this place. He has signified his intention to accept the place. Mr. Major came to Groesbeck from the Hearne schools two years ago and has met with unusual success in handling this school.

He is a first class school man and one of the hardest working superintendents in the state.

Mark Twain pointed out that man is the only animal that blushes.

Groesbeck Picks Brown For Mayor In Hot Election

GROESBECK, Texas, April 2.—What had promised to be a quiet city election in the forenoon today developed into one of the most hotly contested during the afternoon, resulting in a total of 600 votes being cast when only 627 poll taxes had been paid. L. L. Brown was elected Mayor over W. A. Browder with a majority of 50 votes and C. S. Bond and R. M. Usry were chosen as commissioners. All three of these men are well known business men with progressive ideas and are expected to champion a policy for liberal city development. L. L. Brown is proprietor of the Reisen Hotel and owner of a number of brick buildings and has large land holdings near this city. C. S. Bond is of the firm of Bond Brothers Dry Goods, and besides his mercantile interest has considerable real estate holdings in and around the city. R. M. Usry is a real estate agent and has real estate interests and was at one time County Commissioner.

DALLAS, Texas.—Levenia Twitty, negro, is under arrest here charged with the murder last January of Ed Reed, negro taxi driver. Reed was killed to his death in Oak Cliff by a mysterious phone call for a rent car. Twitty, it was said, confessed to officers he murdered the driver to secure his automobile.

Former Mexia Man Burned To Death Last Saturday

Last Saturday in Corsicana, Mr. Ed Weaver was burned to death in his room at a rooming house. The accident happened about 6 a. m. and is supposed to have been caused by escaping gas in his room exploding when he started to light the fire. The noise of the explosion was heard in an adjoining room and when help reached him he was lying on the floor, but not yet dead. Death relieved his sufferings about 10 a. m. Mr. Weaver was until recently bookkeeper for the Central Texas Grocery company here, but was recently transferred to Corsicana, his family, consisting of his wife and two daughters, remaining here until the close of the schools. They reside on Liberty street, and have the sympathy of the entire community in their great sorrow. The funeral occurred Sunday afternoon with interment in the Corsicana cemetery. Japan with 55 million persons has less than a million dairy cows.

EMPORIA, Kans.—William Allen White, distinguished Kansan, is not slated over President Coolidge's prospects for re-election. "The Coolidge situation doesn't look good to me—and I'm for him, too," the Emporia sage said. "Mr. Coolidge is going to have trouble. I don't know whether it will be in the convention or in the election. But I am beginning to doubt if we can elect him if we nominate him." KANSAS, CITY.—Mrs. Clara Merling was seriously burned when she aided in the rescue of her three little daughters from fire which destroyed their home.

PROGRESS

THE PROSPERITY of a community is not measured by population, but by its civic and commercial progress and close cooperation of fellow citizens

A handful of workers, well organized will achieve more than a city full of drones.

Team work is what counts in everything. A prominent football coach recently said: "Give me a team of average ability who will work together, each with the other and all for the team and I will win over any team made up solely of individual stars."

Individual ability makes great men—shining lights, but it is mass co-operation of energetic men of civic spirit, home pride and community enterprise that builds a town's progress and prosperity.

The undersigned merchants who are paying for this page ad are city builders. All civic undertakings—commercial undertakings and other city building cooperative campaigns are supported by them. Now here is where you can do your part—TRADE WITH THESE MEXIA MERCHANTS—spend your money with the men who spend their money for you. The money you circulate at home will finally reach you again. The dollar you spend at home stays here and works. When you help the home merchant, the home industry—they in turn help build up your town—thus making greater opportunities for you and your children.

Your home purchases are always better, for you can see and measure its value—before you part with your money.

LUDENDORFF IS ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF TREASON

MUNICH, April 1.—General Ludendorff was acquitted today on charges of treason for his share in the embryonic beer cellar putsch of November, 1923.

Adolf Hitler, one of eight other defendants, was found guilty and sentenced to five years imprisonment.

Troops and special police kept people moving on the streets and broke up all gatherings of two or more, fearful of a nationalist demonstration.

Word that General Ludendorff had been freed was received with enthusiasm.

Reichswehr marching with rifles on their shoulders and "potato masher" hand grenades stuffed in their belts, prevented any outbursts, however.

Of the defendants, Ludendorff was the only one completely exonerated. Hitler, together with Weber, Kriebel and Poehrer, was found guilty of high treason. They were fined 200 gold marks and sentenced to five years in the fortress.

The whole affair had its comedy aspect, however. It was explained that these four would be freed on probation within six months and that they need not serve longer "if they behave themselves."

The remaining defendants, Bruckner, Roehm, Pernet, Wagner and Frick, were found guilty of aiding high treason. They were fined 100 gold marks each and sentenced to 15 months' imprisonment. These later sentences were immediately commuted and the defendants will be released on probation.

Other distinguished entries included dogs from the kennels of the W. L. Branham, Chicago, president of the National Fox and Wolf Hunters Association; R. S. Hays of Spencer, West Virginia; Judge W. M. Wallace, Shreveport, millionaire oil man and dog fancier; and V. C. Spalding, Monroe City, Missouri.

Don't Use Texas Steer Bones For Mah Jongg

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, April 2.—A protest against the use of Texas Steers' bones to make Mah Jongg sets was the substance of a resolution adopted by the Y M. S. Club, a local organization.

The city recently offered for sale several carloads of bones which Mah Jongg manufacturers bid on. The resolution stated that as the history of the state was so closely related to the Texas steer it would be inappropriate to desecrate the bones of the steers

by making Mah Jongg characters out of them.

On account of the meeting of the Third District Federation of Women's Clubs of Texas, the Nowlin Post of the American Legion and Auxiliary did not meet in their hall Tuesday night. The meetings will be held next Tuesday night and a full attendance is urged, according to the officers of the organizations.

TOLEDO, Ohio.—Seven men here died from drinking "canned heat"—solidified alcohol—Corner Henseler reported after an investigation.

mound. With these two additions, the pitching staff is in the best of condition with Cantrell, Linn, Hollis and Arguijo, righthanders and Gernandt, leftsider, secured from the Omaha Ruffaloes of the Western League. With the acquisition of these two pitchers, the securing of a firstbaseman for the Corsicana club is all that remains to be completed. It is probable that in the event that a stellar firstbaseman is not secured, one of the infielders will be shifted to the initial bag. Grubb may get the assignment.

TO PLAY FOR HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP OF U. S. AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 2. (United Press).—A tournament for champions only, to decide the high school basketball championship of the United States, will open here Tuesday in the first cage scrap of the seventh Interscholastic Basketball Tournament. The meet is under the auspices of the University of Chicago.

Winning teams from more than thirty States are here for the high school basketball classic. Play will continue until Saturday, April 5, when Alonzo A. Stagg, athletic director of the University of Chicago, will present the national winners with a gold-plated basketball, the first trophy.

To avoid disappointment of teams that have traveled thousands of miles only to be eliminated in the first round of the tournament, a consolation tournament is to be held for the first time this year. It will allow each of the teams entered at least two chances to show their stuff.

Interest in many communities has been so great that citizens have raised the money by popular subscription or public benefits to pay railroad fare of the team members to the meet. New Mexico, Tennessee and New York teams were sent to the tourney this way in 1923. In several instances newspapers conducted campaigns to raise the money to send their city's team.

Limited to Champions.

The meet this year is limited for the first time to State champions and teams with exceptional records. Hundreds of letters have come to Chicago University athletic officials asking for invitations to the tourney.

In 1921 the tournament was won by Cedar Rapids High School, Cedar Rapids, Ia., which defeated Crosby High School, Waterbury, Conn., in the finals. In 1922 Lexington High School, Lexington, Ky., copied first honors. Forty teams completed in 1923, representing thirty-one States and including twenty-nine State champions. The first four place winners were Kansas City, Kan.; Rockford, Ill.; Charleston, S. C. and Muskegon, Mich.

State and interscholastic tournaments have been run off during the past two months and the teams arriving here today are coached to the last notch for the big event. Fostered by the University of Chicago the meet has given teams from every section of the country an opportunity to see the skill and ability of teams from other points.

Four Prizes Offered.

Four prizes will be offered, both in the main tourney and in the consolation event. In addition, members of the four highest teams will be given individual medals. The prizes all conform with the "intrinsic value" ruling.

OUCH! LUMBAGO! RUB BACKACHE AWAY

Kidneys cause backache! No! Your backache is caused by lumbago, rheumatism, or a strain and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil. Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a 35 cent bottle of St. Jacobs Oil from your druggist. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

In use for 65 years for lumbago, backache, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains. Absolutely harmless. Doesn't burn the skin.—(Adv.)

in effect in the majority of State associations.

Champion teams from Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, Missouri, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington and Wyoming were arriving on every train today. Many of the teams were accompanied by enthusiastic supporters and several schools brought along the school band.

It is estimated that the big tourney will attract at least 500 playing athletes.

Nowlin Notes

More pay for All O. T. C. Men Under Proposed Law.

To remedy an apparent discrimination against enlisted men who were candidates in Officers' Training Camps after June 30, 1918, and men who enlisted for the sole purpose of entering the camps, Representative Luther A. Johnson of Texas has introduced a bill in Congress which would authorize the payment of claims of all men of the Army and Marine Corps for additional pay for periods of training for commissions in the combatant branches of the Army and Marine Corps at any time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918.

As previously reported in the Week-ly, enlisted men who attended Officers' Training Camps before June 30, 1918, are entitled to the difference between the pay they received and $100 a month, according to a ruling of the Comptroller General based on the Appropriation Act of June 15, 1917. Under the Appropriation Act of July 9, 1918, the pay of these same men reverted on July 1, 1918, to the pay of their grades. It was later ruled that men who were enlisted in the Army for the purpose of attending the training camps were not entitled to the $100 rate.

It is estimated that approximately 10,000 former O. R. C. candidates will be benefited if the new bill becomes a law.

The estimated annual income of the Baptists of Texas is $202,596,812 according to figures which have recently been compiled by the executive board of the denomination in this State, Dr. F. S. Groner, general secretary of the executive board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas asserts. If all the Baptists of Texas were tithers, faithfully giving their tenth to the church causes, the denomination would receive $20,259,681 annually to carry on its work, Dr. Groner said.

ON THE WAY DOWN TOWN

By SLYBOOTS

Tom Meador has surprised his friends. They thought he could shoot a lot better than he did recently when the Mexia Gun Club had its anniversary shoot at the Gun Club Battle Field. He didn't hit a thing but the air, although he tried 150 times, participating in every event. He later explained that since Mexia has entertained quite a number of visitors, he did not want to make them feel badly by asserting his superior eye, steadier nerve and more accurate aim. He didn't however, he made his boosters in the Mexia Gun Club feel ashamed of themselves. Instead of their crack shot, Waco marksmen referred to him as "Mexia's cracked shot."

He stated today that a couple of the members of the Bissextile club visited his photographic studio early this morning. He arranged the chair for one of them to have her picture taken and as he was eying her through his machine, the maiden viewed exclaimed, "Now, try to do me justice Mr. Meador! The photographers never do!"

To this her companion from the Bissextilites remarked: "O! don't ask for justice, ask for mercy, dear. That's what you need."

When the ladies came down stairs,

Cream Clears A Stuffed-Up Head

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffling. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine. (adv.)

Don't Judge Pictures By Frames Around Them

Most people are so heartless and possess so little of the quality of human kindness that all they see in anyone is what is on the outside. Naturally those who are handicapped in presenting a pleasing appearance by pimples, blotches, "breaking out" eczema, etc. on their skin are not going to get any attention. That is the reason you find such folks so backward and shrinking from the "cold shoulder" they have come to expect.

You can "make the frame as lovely as the picture really is" by simply getting rid of those skin disfigurements, if you will just use the wonderful Black and White Ointment. Then your good nature and sweet ways will stand out without any drawback, and folks will want to be around you. It is economically priced, in liberal packages. The 50c size contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have it.—(Adv.)
